Sigma Announces Strategic Alliance with CargoWise edi

CAMBRIDGE, UK: (February 12, 2008) — Sigma Freight Systems and CargoWise edi have jointly announced a focused strategic alliance to develop and market CargoWise edi's flagship product in the UK. The alliance combines CargoWise edi's strengths in the global freight forwarding market with Sigma's deep knowledge of the UK business environment. The alliance will refine and enhance CargoWise edi's flagship product, ediEnterprise for UK requirements.

Sigma Freight Systems has a rich 20-year history of providing software systems to the transportation and logistics industry in the UK. Jon Course and David Hazlehurst, of Sigma and now shareholders and senior managers of CargoWise edi, remain involved with Sigma's existing customers and will develop a roadmap to integrate the best of Sigma's FM3 product into CargoWise's ediEnterprise suite. Mr. Course will manage the customer relationships and consult on UK industry issues, whilst Mr. Hazlehurst will head the development of UK-related product capabilities including customs integration.

The alliance will benefit Sigma and CargoWise edi customers globally by providing UK forwarders, customs and logistics service providers' with access to the global products and services offered by CargoWise edi.

Richard White, CEO of CargoWise edi said, "We view our alliance with Sigma and our relationship with Jon and David as a huge step forward for our UK business. Jon, David and I have a goal of delighting our UK customers by setting new benchmarks for systems capabilities, growing the UK and EU markets and being the very best provider, domestically, regionally and globally.

Jon Course of Sigma Freight Systems said, "We are very excited for the many advantages that such an alliance brings to our customers. It is a great opportunity to work with a true global leader such as CargoWise edi."

David Hazlehurst of Sigma Freight Systems added, "CargoWise edi's vision, product depth, development methods and agility assure me this alliance will lead to great benefits for our customers in the UK."

Steve Corbet, VP Business Development EMEA for CargoWise edi said, "The UK has tremendous potential for future business opportunities and this alliance positions us to focus on moving forward on that front. Sigma has an impressive list of customers, people and domain skills that strongly complement our products and our vision for the future."
