

CargoWise edi Announces Winner of NCBFAA CCS Program Highest Achievement Award for 2008

- Award Given to CCS Student Achievement Sponsored by CargoWise edi -

Chicago, IL USA, May 11, 2009 — CargoWise® edi, a leading provider of integrated international supply chain logistics management systems, announced the recipient of the National Customs Brokers & Forwarders Association of America (NCBFAA)'s National Education Institute Certified Customs Specialists (CCS) Program Highest Achievement Award. The award was presented to trade professional and CCS graduate John Bischoff at the recently held NCBFAA annual conference in Rancho Mirage, California.

The annual award, sponsored by CargoWise edi, goes to the student who achieves the highest marks in the program aimed at earning a Certified Customs Specialist professional designation. In presenting the award, Lisa Tree, Marketing Manager for CargoWise edi, said: "We are very pleased to sponsor this award as part of our ongoing global commitment to industry educational programs that further expertise in the logistics and customs brokerage fields. We congratulate Mr. Bischoff on his outstanding educational performance."

The Highest Achievement Award includes airfare, accommodations and registration fee for the recipient to attend the annual NCBFAA conference, as well as a cash award.

ABOUT THE CCS PROGRAM

NCBFAA's Certified Customs Specialist (CCS) Certification Program is designed to assist trade professionals involved in the import industry to become experts in the current import regulations. Whether students have a broker's license or just a year or two of related experience, this course provides a solid foundation to increase industry knowledge. The CCS course reviews fundamental points relevant to the importation process while delving into practical, relevant subject matter not generally tested on the formal Customs licensing exam. Each topic helps management professionals grow and develop within the changing import industry.
